Kansas Aid.

This is to all who love Liberty, Justice and Equality!

Whereas, numerous bands of lawless men, under the lead and guidance of unprincipled leaders, have heretofore, and are now, congregating on the borders of the Free territory of Kansas, with a view to enter therein and "drive out" the "Free State men" and their families, for the avowed unholy purpose of the more easily establishing Slavery within the territory of Kansas. Therefore, this call is made for the purpose of obtaining material aid for the benefit of the "Free State men" who have sought homes for themselves and their families in that once free and peaceful land—You who have Philanthropy, and the love of Freedom in your hearts, come up on Saturday the 22nd of March, 1856, and let us consult together, what shall be done for our friends in their present emergency. Come, and fail not. March 13, 1856.

Meeting of the Carson League.

Notice is hereby given to the members of the Carson League and to the friends of Temperance generally of this place, that there will be a meeting held on next Wednesday evening in the M. E. Church, at early candle lighting. The meeting will be addressed upon the subject of Temperance by several speakers. Such business as may properly come before the meeting shall receive attention.

The cohorts of "King Alcohol" have marshaled themselves for the purpose of aiding and encouraging the traffic in the liquid poison; and it becomes the friends of Temperance and Morality to let no opportunity of defeating their wicked designs slip. Let there be a general turn out. Come with us and we will do these good.

J. S. HUNTER, Pres't.

Carrollton, O., Feb. 13, 1856.

BRIGHTEN UP.—Spring is approaching and there will soon take place, a general cleaning up for the summer. Amongst other things don't forget the Painter. If your front fences appear old, or your dwellings, out houses or other buildings look weather beaten, a slight touch of his brush will give to all a new appearance. It will not only improve the looks, but protect from the destroying influence of the weather. Don't forget the inside of your dwellings. Be sure to have the "wood work" well painted. Much labor is saved to the tidy house-keeper by so doing. We pity the stingy soul who won't have his dwelling painted for fear of the cost, and the clown whose eye is so dead to beauty that he will not ornament his domicile. A few dollars spent in this way are well spent. We know of no person, better calculated to perform such labor, than our townsman, D. M. Coleman. His skill, as a painter, is not surpassed in these diggins. His work will recommend itself to all. Give him a call and we warrant satisfactory rendered.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—On Saturday next,

the 15th inst., Andrews George, administrator of James M. George, deceased, will offer for sale on the premises, a valuable farm of 160 acres situate in Fox township, near Judge George's store. For description of premises, terms of sale, &c., see advertisement.

On next Monday, the 17th inst., Luke Davis, administrator of James M. Davis, Esq., deceased, late of this place, will expose to sale at the door of the Court House, a portion of the real estate of said decedent, amongst which is a farm of 135 acres, in this township, about two miles north of town, on the Lisbon road. See advertisement.

On Saturday, the 29th inst., Jonathan Daniels, guardian of Gilead Marshall, will offer for sale an 80 acre tract of land, situate in Fox township, near Mechanicsburg. Any person desiring a snug little farm would do well to observe advertisement and hand-bills.

SALES OF PERSONAL PROPERTY.—There will be offered for sale on next Wednesday, the 19th inst., at the late residence of Thomas Wilson, deceased, of this place, a choice variety of household and kitchen furniture, goods, &c., Mrs. Wilson and family intend removing to Iowa, next month. For list of property, we refer our readers to hand-bills.

On Wednesday, the 26th inst., Charles Fawcett, Esq., of Union township, preparatory to removing to Iowa, will offer sale his personal property, consisting of horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, household furniture, &c., &c. See advertisement and hand-bills.

On Friday, the 21st inst., George Grimes, Esq., will offer at public sale, at his residence, one half mile north-west of Augusta, a number of horses, cattle, sheep, and farming utensils; also, a lot of household furniture. For particulars see hand-bills.

The Youth's Casket for March has arrived.

This entertaining monthly for children, is published by E. F. Beadle, Buffalo, N. Y., at 50 cents a year.

Temperance Revival at Urbana.

We noticed in our last issue the progress of a temperance revival at Urbana, Champaign county, O., under the guidance of the "old war horse of the Temperance reformation," Mr. Williams. The meetings were well attended and much good effected. We clip the following from the Citizen and Gazette of the 7th inst.

"Mr. Williams closed his labors here on Thursday evening of last week. The attendance was unusually large, and the meeting one of the most interesting of the series. Quite a number of new names were added to the pledge. It made temperance men feel good to see some men walk up and sign the pledge that night. 'Old Williams' was perfectly happy. On Friday morning the Court, and, we believe, nearly every lawyer in attendance, signed the pledge. During this temperance revival in our town, over twelve hundred names have been obtained to the total abstinence pledge;—may they all prove faithful.

Latest From Europe.

The Africa arrived at New York on the 8th inst., bringing Liverpool dates to 23rd ult. But the news are of little moment. She brings no news of the Pacific which has been out now over 80 days. It is feared she is lost. Nothing new relative, the affairs with the U. S., except that the London Advertiser pretends to know that Dallas brings very stringent instructions. The conference opened in Paris on the 25th. Paris Editors have been ordered to write nothing concerning peace or war during the session. Letters from St. Petersburg and Warsaw to German papers, give details of the extensive preparations made by Russia for a continuance of the war. They state that on no point has the former energy of the military department abated.

WHO WANTS SOMEBODY TO LOVE HIM?—It has often been said that there is a secret mode of forcing people to love you. Science insists that love is a disorder just as easy to produce as any other disorder, and in France, fortunes are made by men professing to accomplish the work. But Roudout, of New York, in his book just published, tells the whole art and mystery of love. He puts it in every lady's power to inspire with deep and abiding affection the bosom of the man she would prefer for a husband. He enables every gentleman to select his life partner—win her at once, and be happy. It is a great book, and is called the "Bliss of Marriage." It is advertised in another column.—Herald.

Ohio Journal of Education.—The March

number of this valuable monthly is before us. The Journal is mainly devoted to the educational interests of the State, and is equally important to the friends of Education in all parts of it. We would gladly see a much wider circulation of the Journal in our midst. Teachers, lend a helping hand. The price is only one dollar. Address: "Journal of Education, Columbus, Ohio."

The Home.—This is the title of a very neatly printed Journal, intended as a fireside monthly companion and guide for the wife, the mother, the sister and the daughter. It promises to be a useful and entertaining acquisition to our fireside reading. The March number is on our table. The Home is published at $1.50 per annum. Address, E. F. Beadle, Buffalo, N. Y.

BREACH OF PROMISE.—At a recent session of a Court at Ulster, N. Y., a suit for breach of promise was tried between a Miss Jordan and Mr. Jenkins, both residents of Gardiner, in that county. The contract of marriage and its breach were clearly shown, and the jury gave the plaintiff $5,000 damages. Both parties are said to be highly respectable, and the only cause assigned for the failure of Jenkins to fulfill his engagement, was the opposition of his mother. He is a boy about thirty years of age.

THE LIQUOR LAW.—From a report of the Attorney General, in answer to a House resolution calling for certain statistics in regard to prosecutions under the prohibitory liquor law, passed May 1854, the following facts are gathered:

"In fifty-seven counties reported, there were 1132 prosecutions, 501 convictions, 468 acquittals and cases dismissed, and 39 cases reversed. Entire cost $25,215."

FORTIFICATIONS.—The Bill reported in the Senate of the U. S. on the 8th inst., provides for expenditures in the Senate of New York as follows:—At Fort Richmond at the Narrows, $100,000; Fort Schuyler, New York Harbor, $150,000; Fort Montgomery, at the outlet of Lake Champlain, $100,000; For purchase of land for defensive purposes at Staten Island, N. Y., $52,280; repairs of Fort Ontario, near Oswego, $600; repairs at Fort Niagara, $10,000, repairs of Fort Wood, Bedoes Island, N. Y. Harbor, $10,000. The total appropriations made by this bill amount to $792,000.

THE HANDS OF WINTER.—A Nebraska

cotermporary indulges in about half a column of most fearful plaint on the unprecedented severity of the winter, and the enormous price of whiskey. He quotes the thermometer at thirty-eight degrees below zero, and whiskey at three dollars a gallon.

A new liquor bill, intending to sweep out of existence liquor vending, oyster houses, bowling alleys, &c., and to confine the sale to legitimate taverns having six beds, has passed the Pennsylvania Senate. It provides for a classification of hotels and taverns, taxing the first class a thousand dollars a year, and the lowest fifty dollars.

The Law of Corporations.—A friend has called our attention to a law passed in April, 1854, amendatory of the general corporation law, by which stockholders of railroad, turnpike, plank road, magnetic telegraph, bridge, or any joint stock company, organized under said corporation law, shall be held liable to an amount equal to their stock subscribed in addition to said stock. We were not aware of the existence of this amendatory act, but John A. Foot, then Senator, informs us it was passed to meet a case in Licking county, in which a manufacturing company was about to be organized.—Cleveland Herald.

The total earnings of the Ohio Penitentiary for the fiscal year ending November 15, 1855, were $69,005 09, and the total expenditure, including salaries was $4,017 95.

The number of convicts in the Prison is six hundred and six, of whom six hundred and one are males, and only five are females.

The New York and Albany Banks have presented Mr. John Upson, Express Messenger who was on board the Hudson River Railroad cars at the time of the Spuyten Dayville Creek accident, with a million of dollars under his care, which he refused to leave for seven hours during the inclement night, although his leg was broken, and his car nearly submerged.

The report that Lewis D. Campbell, at a Know Nothing Ratification meeting, endorsed the nomination of Fillmore and Donalson is not true. Mr. Greeley writes from Washington as follows:

So far as I have heard of, no member who supported Banks now sustains Fillmore. Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, spoke at the Ratification Meeting on Friday night, but was careful not to endorse the nomination.—Herald.

THE EDITOR.—Editors are strange sort of animals. The following capital toast drank at a Printer's Festival, recently held at Boston, is very expressive:

The Editor.—The man who is expected to know everything, tell all he knows, and guess at the rest; to make oath to his own good character, establish the reputation of his neighbors, and elect all candidates to office; to blow up everybody, suit everybody, and reform the world; to live for the benefit of others, and have the epitaph on his tombstone. "Here he lies his last" in short, he is a locomotive running on the track of public notoriety; his lever is his pen; his boiler is filled with ink, his tender is his scissors, and his driving wheel is public opinion; whenever he explodes it is caused by non-payment of subscriptions.

The first German paper printed west of the mountains, was issued at Lancaster, Ohio, by John Herman. It was called the Ohio Adler.—Ohio State Journal.

A mistake, Mr. Journal.—The first

German paper printed west of the mountains was "Der Patriot am Ohio," established by Wm. D. Lepper, Esq., in New Lisbon, 1807. It was converted into an English paper at the end of six months. The German type was subsequently taken to Lancaster and the "Ohio Adler" printed thereon. "Der Patriot" was the first German journal published in the west, and the "Ohio Patriot" is now the oldest paper in the west published without change of name.—Ohio Patriot.

The Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad

Directors have chosen Charles T. Sherman, Esq., of Mansfield, Ohio, to be Attorney of the Road. They have also chosen Mr. J. H. Moore, of the Michigan Southern Railroad, as Superintendent of the Road, John H. Hampton, Esq., has been chosen Assistant Attorney. So says the Pittsburgh Dispatch of the 4th inst.

A dispatch from New Haven, Conn.

says:

A serious riot occurred on the 3d at Yale College. The students having attacked the room of Frisk Brewer, a tutor who was suspected of being a spy. The windows and furniture were demolished, and Mr. Brewer received a blow which rendered him insensible for some time.

On and after May next, fifteen gigantic mail steam packets will leave Europe monthly for the American continent, viz: seven English packets, four United States, three Belgium and one Portuguese.

The ladies won't tell their ages, and lawyers need not attempt to get it out of them. In the Girardville divorce case, in Philadelphia, the depositions of Mrs. Anne S. Stephens and Mrs. Elizabeth F. Ellet were recently read; one says she is "over twenty one" the other says "I don't know my age, or my knowledge"—which is equivalent to saying she can't remember when she was born.

A rich old spinster who died at Newton,

N. H., lately, left $38,419. She was all her life getting ready to be married, and had stored up 182 sheets, 63 coverlets, 50 blankets, 27 beds, with 1120 pounds of feathers, 54 towels, 24 table covers, and 43 handkerchiefs.

One dollar notes of Mohoning Co., Bank altered to tens, are in circulation. The figure $10 on each end of the note, and the words in large letters near the centre, TEN DOLLARS, are neatly pasted in. They are apt to deceive unless scrutinized. Look out for them.

It is said that Barnum, notwithstanding his failure, has secured $150,000 in such a manner that none of his creditors can touch it.

At the recent term of the Probate

Court of Tuscarawas County, a man by the name of Henry Scheu, of Ragersville, was fined $75 and cost of suit, and imprisoned 80 days, for selling liquor contrary to law.—Verily, the way if transgressors are hard

MARRIED.

On Tuesday the 11th inst., by M. Ayers Esq., Mr. Daniel A. Stout to Miss Elizabeth B. Andrews, all of this county.

DIED.

On Tuesday evening last, after a protracted and painful illness, Mrs. ELIZABETH GOULD, wife of John S. Gould, of this place.—The deceased leaves a numerous family and a large circle of relatives and acquaintances to mourn her loss.

New Special Notices.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills, an infallible Remedy for Itches on the Skin.—Edgar Mortimer, aged 25, of Third street, Philadelphia, was five years ago seized with blotches on the skin, the whole of his face, neck, arms, and hands, being disfigured with them like small pox; he consulted several very clever medical men, who told him it was the predilecting symptoms of some disease, which alarmed him exceedingly; however, he took Holloway's Pills immediately and rubbed the Ointment on the parts affected, and in two weeks the whole of the blotches disappeared, and his health was considerably improved. These remedies will cure the most deeply seated skin wounds and ulcers, even of twenty years standing.
